

Faith: We recognize the Christian faith as an integral part of the organization and a legitimate source of information, inspiration, and transformation, which provides guidance for our decisions and behavior.

Integrity: We will honor what we say as an organization and act accordingly, even courageously, regardless of who is looking.

Honesty: We will be transparent and tell the truth, while respecting the confidentiality of others.

Hospitality: We invite the hurting of the world to our door and serve all people with kindness, compassion and mercy.

Passion: We are passionate about our mission, demonstrating the highest level of service, accountability and responsibility and delivering strong results.

Relationships: We respect the dignity and we value the uniqueness of each individual, encouraging a culture of empathy and humility, building others up by our words and actions.

Teamwork: We chose to be intentionally connected in our work together, believing we are strongest as a team, while embracing our diversity of individual perspectives
